RE: Change in procedure in unfilled charges

Dear Attorneys:

This memo is to inform you that as of March 1, 2025, both Hunt County Courts at Law will no longer be classifying Court Appointment Requests and Orders on unfilled cases as writs for purposes of giving jurisdiction to the County Court at Law to hear bond matters.

Only a Writ of Habeas Corpus alleging a 17.151 Code of Criminal Procedure violation or some other recognized grounds will be heard by a County Court at Law on unfilled cases.

Once a complaint and information has been filed, then the designated County Court at Law will exercise jurisdiction over the case.

Any motion to modify bonds must be filed at the respective magistrate court that set the bond and conditions.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
