A Roth IRA is an individual Retirement Account to which you contribute after-tax dollars. While there are no current-year tax benefits, your contributions and earnings can grow tax-free, you can withdraw them tax and penalty-free after age 59 1/2 and once the account has been open for five years or due to death, disability, or a qualified first-time home purchase (up to a $10,000 lifetime maximum). Depending upon state law, Roth IRA distributions may be subject to state taxes.

Chris Rorie is a Registered Representative of/and securities are offered solely by Equity Services, Inc. (ESI), 950 East State Hwy 114, Southlake, TX 76092. 817-310-4700. Envision Financial Services is independent of Equity Tax Services, Inc. It is not my position to offer tax advice. You should seek the advice of an accountant regarding your own personal situation.
